WORKING MEN'S COLLEGE

45, GREAT ORMOND STREET.

May 18th, 1872.

DEAR SIR,

I am directed by the Executive Committee to inform you that an adjourned Special Meeting of the Council will be held at these Rooms, on Friday next, the 24th May, at 5 o'clock precisely, to consider the present circumstances of the College. The Vice Principal will lay before the Council, the proposed Minute, relative to the death of Mr. MAURICE, and Mr. LUDLOW will move the following Resolutions:

1. That, in order to carry out the purposes for which this College was founded, its Constitution requires to be remodelled.

2. That the present composition of the Council is unsatisfactory, and that the direction of the studies of the College requires to be vested in those who may be considered its actual teachers for the time being.

3. That the elder students should directly and largely participate in the government of the College, as viewed apart from the direction of its studies.

4. That a Committee be appointed to consider what steps should be taken for amending the Constitution of the College, as well as that of the Working Men's College Company connected with it.

Faithfully yours,

HENRY E. RAWLINS.
